On the evening of the 23 instant, the citizens of Miami county, having heard of the recent violent death in Mexico, of their esteemed fellow citizen ALEXANDER WILSON, assembled at the usual place of holding publie demonstrations, to mingle their regrets and sympathies. No preliminary calls, no tinkling signal Heralded the approach of this meeting-yet a crowded attendance well attested the deep interest of the occasion, and was a brighter testimonial of their profound respect for the memory of the lamented dead, than aught that language could invent.

The meeting was organized by calling John Bush to the Chair, and the appointment of Almaonso A. Cole,

The Chairman in a feeling and appropriate manner, stated the object of the meeting; and thereupon, on motion of James B. Fulwiler, a committee of five were appointed by the Chair, to-wit; Jas. B. Fulwiler, John A. Graham, George L. Dart, Dr. E. H. Bruce and A. A. Cole, who, after a short retirement reported the following resolutions which were unanimously adopted: Resolved, That this community has heard, with the deepest sensibility, and the profoundest regret, of the violent death of our highly esteemed and valued citizen, ALEXANDER WILSON, who was suddenly cut down, by the hand of the Mexican assassin, and whose mortal remains now lie buried in a distant and inhospitable land, Resolved, That whilst these insatiate banditti have, successfully, robbed this community first, of a youth dear to the hearts of some, and now of a manly citizen, distinguished for his honesty and enterprise, and deservedly occupying a high place in its regards, they have, also, with the latter, entombed the affections, (the richest earthly treasures) of his surviving companion. Resolved. That to the friends, and particularly to the bereaved companion of the deceased, "the pinions of The Trappings and Housings of incomparable elegance. The Coawhose hope are heavy with tears, and scarcely bear the heart above the grave in which its idol lies," our unaffected condolence and best sympathies are given.

WINTAR'S BALSAN OF WILD CHEERY, the great American Remrdy for Lung complaints and all affections of the Respectiony WE do not wish to triffe with the lives or health of the afflicted. and we sincerely pledge ourselves to make no assertions as to the victue of this medicine and to hold out no hope to suffering humantly which facts will not warrant. We ask the ttention of the candid to a few considerations. Nature in every part of her works, less left indeable marks of adaptation and design. The constitution of the animals and vegetables of the torrid is such that they could not endure the cold of the fright zone and vice verse. In regard to disease and its cure, the idaptation of remedies is not less striking. The Mose of Iceland and the Pineaud Wild Cherry are justly relebrated for prevalent in all morthern latitudes. From a combination of Chendral Extracts procured from this "Mass," and these "Trees," Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry is chiefly formed. Concesson, Inp., January 28, 4848 It is no less a duty than a pleasure to me to state for the length of blessing to the human race. Having tried it in a case of severe at fection of the lungs, unbesitatingly recommend it to those sin thirly afflicted as the best remedy that I have ever fried, and one which myself that my time to depart was near at band.

WILLIAM COLDRON. SPRINGERSON, Kv., Vav. 14, 1875. Mesers, Sanford & Park: I take this opportunity of informing you of a most remarkable cure performed upon my by the use of the Wietar's Baisam of Wild Cherry. In the year h 40, I was taken without flammation of the bowels, which Habited under for 6 weeks, when I gradually recovered. In the fall of lott, I was attacked with a severe cold, which seated itself upon my lungs, and for the space of there years I was confined to my bed. I tried all Lands of medicines, and every variety of medical sid, without benefit; and thus I wented along until the winter of 1844, when I heard of Wister's Rabam of TOW comes the com, lamants by Barbour, their counsel, and Wild Cherry. My friends persuaded me to give it a trial, though I it appearing to the satisfaction of the court by the adidavit of had given up all hopes of recovery, and find prepared myself for the change of another world. Through their solicitation, I was no duced to make use of the Gennine Wistar's Baisom of Wild Cherry The effect was truly astont-hing. After five years of affliction, pain, and suffering, and after having spent four or five bundled dollars to no purpose, and the fest and most re pertable physicisms had proved unavailing, I was soon restored to entire health by the Idesone et God and theuse of Dr. Wistac's Balsoni of Wild Cherry. I am now enjoying wood bealth, and such is my attend magaziner. that I am no longer known when I meet my former acquainfances. I have gained rapidly in weight, and my flesh is from and solid. I can now eat is much as any person, and my hard scenes to gree with me. I have esten more during the last six months than I had cales in five years before. Considering my case almost a miracle I deem it necessary for the good of the afflicted, and a duty I own to the proprietors and my fellow men, (who should know where relief may be had,) to make this statement public. May the blessings of God rest upon the proprietors of so valuable a medicine as Wistar's Palsam of Wild Yours respectfully, Marion circuit court, the above parties came into said court and

> BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS - Those who counterfeit a good medicine for the purpose of adding a few dollars to their pockets are far warse than the manufacturers of spurious coin. For while the latter, only rob us of our property, the former take property and health and life away. Dr. Wistar's Bals, m of Wild Cherry is admitted by Thousands of disinterested witnesses to have effected the most extrapedy nary cures in cases of pulmonary and asthmatic character, ever before recorded in the history of medicine. The young, the beautiful, the good all speak forth its praise. It is now the favorite medicine in the most intelligent families of our country. Such a high stand in public estimation has been achieved by its own merits alone. And so long as a discerning publicare careful to get; Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, and refuse with scorn counterfeits, said every other article proffered to them as a substitute, so long writernes, positive cures, cheer the fire sdie of many a despairing family.
